

Middle Temple Library

November 2016

John van der Luit-Drummond, 'Grieve: Article 50 challenge could go to CJEU. Great Repeal Act 'a red herring' for politicians to bat around' (1 November 2016) 160 (41) SJ 12.

Charles Proctor, 'Do you want a hard- or soft-boiled Brexit? Charles Proctor explains how the UK could declare itself a free trade zone by ceasing to impose tariffs on imports immediately after its split from the European Union' (1 November 2016) 160 (41) SJ 17.

Joanna Farrands, 'No child left behind? Joanna Farrands considers whether Brexit will result in abducted children being left stranded overseas' (1 November 2016) 160 (41) SJ 19.

Mark Walker, 'Brexit: A view from above. Flight delays & missed connections with non-EC carriers' (4 November 2016) 166 (7721) NLJ 14–15.

David Callaghan, 'Brexit has 'done market a favour'' (5 November 2016) 1644 EG 39.

Max Walters, 'Brexit ruling 'could bring clarity'' [7 November 2016] L.S.G 1–2.

Richard Whish QC, 'Opinion: Comment: Heading for the Brexit? A brain drain of EU law students would damage universities and our profession' [7 November 2016] L.S.G. 10.

'Government defeated over Article 50 as High Court rules it is Parliament's vote' [7 November 2016] The Lawyer 6.

Yun Kriegler, 'We (still) love London. Despite the continuing expansion of international law firms on the Continent and uncertainty around Brexit, London remains a stronghold for European firms' global business' [7 November 2016] The Lawyer 16–24.

Gary Senior, 'Referrals in the balance. If the international firms expand in Europe, will European firms in London lose their grip on referrals?' [7 November 2016] The Lawyer 25. [interview]

Middle Temple Library

Riccardo Calzavara and Toby Vanhegan, 'No Brexit without parliament. Riccardo Calzavara and Toby Vanhegan consider the reasoning behind the High Court's ruling that the government cannot trigger article 50 without parliament's consent' (8 November 2016) 160 (42) SJ 19.

Michael Rubenstein, 'Diary: The Great Repeal Bill' (November 2016) 272 EOR 2.

Charles Wynn-Evans, 'Testing the boundaries. Charles Wynn-Evans reviews some recent TUPE developments' (November 2016) 175 Emp.L.J. 17–19.

Jan Miller, 'Truss in dock over Art 50 case uproar' (11 November 2016) 166 (7722) NLJ 4.

'Brexit: a common sense proposal' (11 November 2016) 166 (7722) NLJ 6.

'Too little, too late. The Lord Chancellor's response to the attacks on judicial independence has not found favour with the legal profession...' (11 November 2016) 166 (7722) NLJ 8.

Michael Zander QC, 'Art 50: the verdict. Michael Zander QC predicts the government is likely to lose the appeal to the Supreme Court' (11 November 2016) 166 (7722) NLJ 9–10.

Louise Christian, 'Opinion and analysis: "The leave campaign said Brexit was all about establishing our country's democratic sovereignty, surely a matter for parliament and not for archaic royal command"' [November 2016] Legal Action 9.

Alison Harvey, 'Implications of Brexit for immigration law. Alison Harvey highlights some key immigration law issues that are likely to arise when the UK leaves the EU' [November 2016] Legal Action 10–11.

Helen Kelly, 'The hard work begins now. One year on from the publication of the Maritime Growth Study and there remains much to do to ensure Britain's leading place on the global maritime stage..(inc. Maritime UK outlines opt-out clause in Brexit tonnage tax)' [November 2016] The Intelligence 12–14.

Lara Myers, 'Creating uncertainty. Lara Myers highlights the implications of Brexit and the potential impact on jurisdiction issues in family proceedings' (December 2016/January 2017) 162 Fam.L.J. 19–21.

Middle Temple Library

Paul Raftery and Anna Kerrane, 'M&A due diligence after Brexit. Paul Raftery and Anna Kerrane highlight some of the areas of due diligence which prudent buyers should consider in light of the UK's withdrawal from the EU' (15 November 2016) 160 (43) SJ 27.

Abimbola Olowofoyeku, 'Miller, Brexit, and the European Court. Professor Abimbola Olowofoyeku explains why a Supreme Court reference to the Court of Justice of the European Union may be required before Brexit can be implemented' (15 November 2016) 160 (43) SJ 32–33.

'Q&A: Brexit and the Panama Papers affair. Leading lawyers discuss the ramifications of two of the most important developments of the year for offshore jurisdictions' (14 November 2016) 30 (46) The Lawyer 20–26.

Jan Miller, 'What if the referendum is binding?' (18 November 2016) 166 (7723) NLJ 4.

Nicholas Strauss QC, 'Brexit: the final say. Article 50: an incorrect concession? Nicholas Strauss QC proposes an alternative line of attack' (18 November 2016) 166 (7723) NLJ 14–15.

Christopher Hutton and Aniko Adam, 'Wait & see. Christopher Hutton & Aniko Adam examine the implications of Brexit for UK competition law' (18 November 2016) 166 (7723) NLJ 18–19.

David Mundy and Oliver Spencer, 'The Brexit case: what happens next? Constitutional law. After the government lost in the High Court in a bid to trigger Brexit without consulting parliament, David Mundy and Oliver Spencer consider what this major constitutional ruling could mean for the UK' (19 November 2016) 1646 EG 77.

'Business courts can thrive post-Brexit, says top judge' [14 November 2016] L.S.G. 4.

Laura Devine, 'Crass methodologies for Hard Brexit' [21 November 2016] L. S. G. 20.

John van der Luit-Drummond, 'Lady Hale will not recuse herself from Miller appeal. Supreme Court judge says she has 'exhibited no bias' (22 November 2016) 160 (44) SJ 9.

Gishan Abeyratne, 'Brexit calling. Gishan Abeyratne discusses the growth of the corporate market in the South West as firms demonstrate their ability to compete for work with London and considers the possible impact of Brexit' (22 November 2016) 160 (44) SJ 22–25.

Middle Temple Library

Paul Stanley QC, 'Three planks of Brexit. Although it is likely the Supreme Court will affirm the Divisional Court's judgment in Miller, Paul Stanley QC suggests there are problems with the High Court's decision (22 November 2016) 160 (44) SJ 30.

Michael Zander QC, 'Brexit in court. Professor Michael Zander QC assesses the High Court decision and predicts the government is likely to lose its appeal to the Supreme Court' [November 2016] Counsel 18.

Saima Hanif, 'Brave new world. How will losing passporting rights affect the UK's financial services sector? Saima Hanif argues that the equivalence regime is not a satisfactory alternative' [November 2016] Counsel 32–33.

Dr Charles Chatterjee, 'What lessons may one draw from Brexit?' (Winter 2015, published in 2016) 104 Amicus Curiae 20–28.

Jonathan Goldsmith, 'Opinion: State of the Union: Carry on complying. Brexit is unlikely to entail a 'quickie divorce'. Here's why' [28 November 2016] L.S.G 9.

'Lawyers plan for Brexit' (25 November 2016) 166 (7724) NLJ 4.

Michael Zander QC, 'Peer reviewing Brexit pt. 2. What did the pro-Brexit peers suggest? Michael Zander QC looks back at the House of Lords' post-referendum debate' (25 November 2016) 166 (7724) NLJ 10–11.

Matthew Rogers, 'Bob Neil MP: Anything that knocks our legal system harms the national interest. Lawyers must be prepared to stand up and be counted, and there are those in parliament prepared to stand up with you, says justice select committee chair' (29 November 2016) 160 (45) SJ 12–13.

Belinda McRae, 'Brexit Regime. The Brussels Regime, the fate of civil jurisdiction and the enforcement and recognition of judgments after Brexit are examined by Belinda McRae of 20 Essex Street' [Autumn 2016] European Advocate 2–5.

Christopher Muttukumar CB, 'The Great Repeal. Christopher Muttukumar CB of Monckton Chambers looks ahead to the Great Repeal Bill and a future legal framework whose shape is not yet clear' [autumn 2016] European Advocate 6–7.

Evanna Fruithoff, 'Brexit and the Bar. Evanna Fruithoff represents the Bar of England and Wales in Brussels. She looks at the implications and challenges of Brexit for the Bar of England and Wales' [Autumn 2016] European Advocate 9–10.

Middle Temple Library

'Beyond Brexit' [Autumn 2016] European Advocate 11.

Sionaidh Douglas-Scott, 'Brexit, Article 50 and the Contested British Constitution' (November 2016) 79 (6) MLR 1019–1040.

Robert Craig, 'Casting Aside Clanking Medieval Chains: Prerogative, Statute and Article 50 after the EU Referendum' (November 2016) 79 (6) MLR 1041–1063.

Gavin Phillipson, 'A Dive into Deep Constitutional Waters: Article 50, the Prerogative and Parliament' (November 2016) 79 (6) MLR 1064–1089.

'Great Repeal Bill and Brexit challenge ahead' [November 2016] Counsel 6.

Piers Gardner, 'Unclogging the court. Brexit provides new context for the UK's role in the Council of Bar and Law Societies of Europe – particularly its scrutiny of the European Court of Human Rights' excessive caseload' [November 2016] Counsel 32–33.