

THE HONOURABLE SOCIETY OF THE MIDDLE TEMPLE

Middle Temple Library Legal Research Training

All sessions qualify under the new CPD rules' learning objectives as Legal Knowledge and Skills
<https://tinyurl.com/zjfcbnl>

The Essentials Practical Legal Research

Designed for students, these sessions cover the essentials of practical legal research, highlight Middle Temple Library's resources, and compare print with electronic sources.

Advanced Electronic Searching

Master the art of searching subscription legal databases, familiarise yourself with Boolean logic and learn how to narrow and broaden your search results using connectors, fields and language.

Navigating the Free Legal Web

Highlights some of the best and most useful free legal resources on the internet. Different practice areas will be looked at, along with foreign and international resources and different legal materials, from legislation to case reports.

Wednesday 4th October, 6pm

Wednesday 11th October, 6pm

Tuesday 24th October, 6pm

Monday 30th October, 6pm

Monday 13th November, 6pm

Monday 27th November, 6pm

Monday 20th November, 6pm

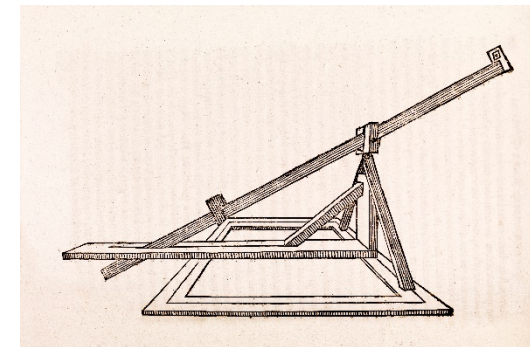

Monday 4th December, 6pm

In the New Year we will be offering further training sessions on EU and US law sources – details to follow!

Individual legal research advice sessions are available throughout the year. Contact the library (details below) to find out more.

All sessions last approximately 1 hour, are free of charge and open to all Inns of Court members.

To book your place, speak to a member of library staff or contact us at library@middletemple.org.uk or 020 7427 4830

Artwork of an apparatus used in astronomical research to measure the apparent size of the Sun and Moon, from 'Astronomiae Pars Optica' (1604) by German mathematician, astronomer and astrologer Johannes Kepler (1571-1630).